PASSPORT INITIATIVE FOR U.S. CITIZENS - PASSPORTS NEEDED FOR CANADA, MEXICO, BERMUDA AND CARIBBEAN

As of January 23, 2007 passports are required for travel between the United States and Canada, Mexico, the Caribbean (except for travel to and from U.S. territories by U.S. citizens, and Bermuda).

As of October 1, 2007, exceptions are no longer being made for those who have applied for their passport but haven't received it. Please make sure that you have your passport with you when you arrive at the airport for your travel between the areas mentioned above.

For details, see the U.S. Department of State's Western Hemisphere Travel Initiative information at <http://travel.state.gov/>.

Visa Waiver Program

Traveling to the United States? Effective January 12, 2009 the Visa Waiver Program (VWP) requires travelers to submit an online request for travel authorization via the Electronic System for Travel Authorization (ESTA) prior to boarding a carrier to travel by air or sea to the United States.

This is being done to allow visitors from participating countries to get speedy approval for travel to the U.S. for business or pleasure for 90 days or less without first obtaining a visa. For more information you can visit the VWP website at <https://esta.cbp.dhs.gov/>.

The Western Hemisphere Travel Initiative is a result of the Intelligence Reform and Terrorism Prevention Act of 2004 (IRTPA), requiring all travelers to present a passport or other document that denotes identity and citizenship when entering the United States.
